ACK'D
DEC 14
1841

London Dec 23 1841
Dear Sir
I am in receipt of a letter from a friend in Paris, France, expressive of the following circumstances.
He is a Russian by birth, 50 years of age, and has been a resident and Commission Agent or Merchant in Paris for very many years.
His Passport and protection papers are of course, Russian. Since the war with Russia, he finds himself self subjected to very many annoyances, in consequence of his Nationality.
He writes for papers, (held as he informs me by many others,) declaratory of an American, temporary citizenship, or for a Passport, upon declarations of intentions for naturalization &c.
I am well aware of the impressions of foreigners, of the facilities for procuring American Passports, and of the generally received opinion that they have been, and can be, bought.
Unwilling for a moment, to compromise in the slightest degree, what I have most unconsciously regarded the value and privileges of our birth rights and Nationality, and not being aware of any rule or law by which my friend can receive American papers, I have taken the liberty most respectfully of referring his request to the Department of State at Washington D.C.
With considerations of esteem,
